

ABSTRACT

This study aims to examine how the dual role of a fisherman's wife and the socio-economic conditions of fishermen in Ujung Batu Village, Jepara District. It also examines the dual role of fishermen's wives in helping their family's economy so that they can improve and strengthen the needs of their household and their children. This research was conducted in Ujung Batu Village, Jepara District, Jepara Regency.

The method of data collection in this study used the technique of observation, interviews and documentation. The analysis used in this research is quantitative analysis and qualitative analysis. The results of the study show that the socio-economic conditions in Ujung Batu Village mostly show that they work as fishermen. The social conditions in Ujung Batu Village are quite close in terms of brotherhood, many of the people in Ujung Batu Village empower their neighbors and relatives to participate directly in the field. fisheries. Meanwhile, from an economic point of view, fishermen households in Ujung Batu Village are quite well off. Some of the dual roles of fishermen's wives in Ujung Batu Village, Jepara District, Jepara Regency that have been carried out include production roles, reproductive roles, household care, child care, providing education and managing community roles.

Keywords: Multiple Roles, Fishermen's Wives, Characteristics of Fishermen's Wives