

ABSTRACT

One of the technique analyze to company performance used profitability measured by ROA (Return On Asset). Return On Asset showed the effectiveness of company to get profit with asset . This research aimed to analyze the influence of ownership structure, board size, leverage, and growth opportunity to profitability that measured by ROA. This research used control variable of industry .

The number of sample in this research was 14 companies non-financial listed on Indonesia Stock Exchange 2010-2013. The sampling method by using purposive sampling. Analysis techniques used is Ordinary Least Square Regression (OLS), statistical t-test and classic assumption test that includes a test of normality test, multicollinearity test, heteroskedastisitas test, autocorrelation test.

The result showed that state ownership has negative significant association with profitability. The managerial ownership has not significant with profitability. Board size has not significant with profitability. Leverage has negative and significant association with profitability , growth opportunity has positive and significant association profitability. Industries as control variable in this research hold the influence to state ownership, managerial ownership, board size, leverage, and growth opportunity with profitability.

Key words : Profitability, The ownership of Government, The Ownership of Managerial, board size, leverage, growth opportunity.